Breaking Bread Together

Prelude Simple Gifts Ji Hye Jung
Welcome Rev. Pam Cochrane
Call to Worship This is the Day

Invocation

Loving God, through the Risen Christ you show us that life may be made new. You show us that we always have new chances and that you love us and call to us over and over again, inviting us to move from dull mourning into the dance of new life. We gather to give you thanks for all you have done, and ask you to be with us in all we do. Open our ears to listen for your voice, calling us. Open our eyes to see the work you would have us do. Open our lips to make joyful noises of praise. Open our hearts to the new possibilities you set before us.

In name of the one who brings new life to the world we pray the prayer Jesus taught his disciples...

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Sung Response [sing twice] Ken Medema

Lord, listen to your children praying,
Lord, send your spirit in this place;
Lord, listen to your children praying,
Send us love, send us pow'r, send us grace.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Gracious God, we thank you for the gift of the risen Christ, and for being with us here and always. We feel your presence in the meal we have shared and we are nourished by the love that grows in our hearts and in our lives when we gather as your beloved. We celebrate this Communion meal with all your children around the world. May we be strengthened to carry your love with us in all we do and say. Amen.
