Call to Worship (unison)

Jesus Christ summons us
To answer God's call of mercy.
Christ gathers us and gives us power
to be healed and to heal,
to be forgiven and to forgive,
to be freed from sin and to set others free,
to tell one another and the world:
God's presence is at hand.
Let us worship God.

Opening Prayer

Wonderful, surprising God,
You bring us hope when we are discouraged,
peace when we are anxious,
and joy when we are least expecting it.
Help us, now, to rest in your presence.
Be our welcomed Guest not only here but everywhere we go this week.
Show us how to receive all that you have to offer us.
May we remain open even to what seems to incredible to be true,
for in you, so much is more possible than we even imagine,
we pray this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, Amen.

with the words Jesus taught his disciples to pray, we pray...

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Sung Response

Spirit divine, attend our prayers and make this world thy home;
Descend with all thy gracious powers, O come, great Spirit, come!

Prayer of Confession

Gracious, inviting God
You continually provide us with opportunities to practice generous hospitality.
But our fear of difference, reluctance to share,
and desire to be in control make our welcome
appear weak and insincere.
Because we long for what is familiar and comfortable,
we have difficulty honoring the stranger as a sacred guest
who bears the face of Christ.
Worn out and irritated by the work we think we must do,
we miss opportunities to receive the gifts
that such guests offer us.
Forgive us, O God, for focusing on the wrong things.
show us how to do what is right.

Words of Assurance

The Psalmist declares that those who speak the truth from their heart will abide in God's Sanctuary. God hears the difficult truths we speak and hold in the silence of our hearts. Now, let the wonderful gift of God's forgiveness flow through you. May the abundance of God's mercy and grace set you free to serve God with love.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen
